“ Dear Deanna and Your Sisters, I met your dad about five years ago and he became a good and close friend in a short amount of time. I also became his hairstylist from time to time. We both shared things about our lives while he was in my chair. I know for a fact that he truly was proud of all of you girls and he loved you and his grandchildren very much. He was also an extremely good friend lending advice to me in life's journey. I will always thank him for that. He will be sorely missed by me as well as many others. I always held your dad in high regard and always will. He was a true friend in the best way. Love to you and your family and most of all to your dad. Larry Dick
