“ Jessica was a beautiful woman with a shining personality! She never gave up-always had a cheerful, positive attitude. She was full of life and loved her family so very much. Her face lit up with a smile whenever they came to visit! She was an inspiration to all of us at Cambridge North and we were blessed to have had her with us. She was a bright and shining star and we will remember her always. Our heartfelt condolences to her family-please know we loved Jess very much. Lauri Brown BSN/UM and the Cambridge North staff

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. Jessica and Jim lived across the street from my Grandma in Hazel Park. I have very fond memories of Jessica coming over with baby Melissa and sit on our porch swing and just visit. My grandma loved her so much and looked forward to her coming over for little visits. The Beaman family sends their condolences.

“ To my dear sweet sister Jessica, this is the hardest letter to write. So many memories came flooding back to me today. I remember you were a baby with cloth diapers hanging half off since I didn't always put them on correctly. I gave you bottles and baths and walks in the stroller and told everyone that you were my little baby. Later you were older and went on some dates with Bob and I to drive in movies and the lake. We took you to lake Orion and Bob swam with you to the middle of the lake and I was so angry I screamed for him to bring you back. I have pictures and movies of that. You and your best friend Angel used to play "Belva and Bob" we thought that was so cute. Later as a teen you suffered a terrible accident when the carburetor blew up and you were on fire. My own baby had chicken pox and I couldn't come to the hospital to see you as they didn't want those germs brought. I worried so over you. You grew up and I danced at your wedding and you became a mom. You sold Mary Kay and I loved Avon but still came to buy from you and you gave me a discount. You tried so hard to teach me how to fold fitted sheets but I never did learn. I remember parties in my living room on Goddard and we danced all night and wore out the rug. knew one day You would say good bye to me but I never dreamed I'd be saying it to you. I'm so sad but so glad mother had you. I'm going to remember those happy days and even those sad ones. I hope they had a huge welcome party for you when you arrived in Heaven and that Melissa was there to take you in her arms. Rest in Love and Peace dear sister and when its my turn I hope you plan my welcome home party. I love you always to heaven and back. I'll cry for a short time and then I'll spend the rest remembering all the good things about you which was everything. I'll miss those calls on my birthday. Every year and you never forgot even in the nursing home. Enjoy Heaven little sister. I love you.

“ Auntie Jessica was a very generous and loving woman. Each time I saw her, despite her struggles, she always smiled and asked how I was doing. My prayers go out to your family.
