“ *Dear Marlene and Family,
Our hearts are breaking for you and yours with the passing of our dear brother Jim. I remember Jim sitting on our porch, and Marlene sitting on hers across the street when they were kids. Even then, they seemed to know that one day they would be married. And what a beautiful family they have had, two wonderful young men, Derek and Brian.*

*Jim has truly been an instrument of God's peace and love in all of our lives. We pray for God's comfort for you, Marlene and family. Mary and I will truly miss you, Jim.
With our love and deepest sympathies,
Len and Mary*

“ Mark, Karen and family, we are so sorry to hear of the passing of your brother Jim. My heart breaks for you and your entire family. To pass suddenly, the whole family has a major adjustment especially with the void of a main caregiver. As a loving husband, brother, father and grandfather. Lives are never the same with someone missing here in our earthly lives.

Our Lord had a different plan for Jim and may it comfort us knowing he is now with Him, until you meet again. How blessed that must be!!

We pray for you and your family that our Lord supports and holds you in the palm of His hand as you navigate the days, times to come.

With deepest love & sympathy sent your way.

Love you, Susan, Keith, Clayton, Dominique & Amelia

“ I will miss my older brother Jim. I was recently diagnosed with a life ending disease. Jim has been there for me daily through my issues. I asked him the question is it hard to grieve the person who is still alive. Here is his response in his last email to me:

This is so true. Because of circumstances, we can't help the person that we love in person and have to rely on phones and emails to still stay in their lives. We grieve the loss of face-to-face contact that my not happen again. We can remember the times that we had and cherish those going forward in this heartbreaking journey on earth. The good news is that we will be reunited in Heaven and can be a guardian Angel to those we love that are still meandering on earth. Love you lots and think about you all the time, day and night. Jim

It is going to be hard to go on without your knowledge and help. Thank you for always being there for me. I love you and miss you Jimmy B.

“ To my brother JimBo:

(Uncle to my sons, Stephen & Christopher, great Uncle to my granddaughters)

To one of my favorite brothers (I was blessed with 3). He and I shared a lifetime of I love, heartbreak, and yes, bad jokes. He was my person I could always go to no matter what. Marlene was his better-half and forever his soul mate. True testament of his faith.

They shared their love for each other in a Christian loving home for over 50 years. Raised two sons Derek and Brian. They were blessed with two grandchildren, Jack and Kate as well loved the four-legged grandchildren.

I love you and miss you already.

Your sister, Linda

(you called me your Buddy) I will never forget your kindness, love, and remember the words of encouragement, Sis never give up, God is with you today, tomorrow, and always.

Love you,

Your loving sister Linda & always your Buddy

“ Jim and I knew each other through Trinity church Men’s Ministry; Band of Brothers. We shared many life challenges in those meetings. Jim was always very generous with his stories and time of service to others. He loved to talk about the connection between his work-life and spiritual-life. His examples impacted many, including me. He loved to talk about Jesus. Now Jim is with Jesus Christ face to face! I can imagine Jim’s great big smile as he is in His loving care.
