

Jim Hood

May 31, 1955 - December 21, 2015

Hood, Arthur "Jim" Jr., age 60, of Detroit passed away on December 21, 2015. Jim was born on May 31, 1955 to Sophia and the late Arthur Hood in Detroit, MI. He was a 1973 graduate of Bishop Foley high school and attended Columbia University of New York. Jim spent many years working as a cameraman for PBS (Channel 56).

Jim took great pride in his hometown of Detroit and spent a great deal of time on the Detroit River. He enjoyed rock n' roll, books, movies, and photography. While at home, he loved to cook and garden (he was known for his green thumb).

Loving father of Madeleine. Beloved son of Sophia and the late Arthur. Dear brother of Pattie Berryhill. Uncle of Keith Berryhill. Also survived by cousins and many friends.

Visitation Saturday at 1:30 p.m. until time of service at 4 p.m. at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, 705 W 11 Mile Road (4 blocks E of Woodward), Royal Oak.

Memorial contributions to the Michigan Humane Society are appreciated.

“ I just found out Jim has passed away and wish to express my sympathy to his family. We were friends in high school at Bishop Foley, both played in a rock band, 'The Skylighters' in 1973 there, and remember him as an avid photographer. I know he loved to play his guitar and was more than an amateur photographer back then. Rest in Peace, Jim. I'll keep you in my prayers.

I knew Jim since 1971. He was an excellent photographer who could work magic in the darkroom. We shared a lot of laughs and many great times. My world is brighter for having known him. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.
