

JoAnn DeBuck

May 12, 1952 - December 15, 2021

JoAnn DeBuck, of Washington Twp, passed away on December 15th at Beaumont Hospital in Troy, MI at the age of 69. Born in Alexandria, VA on May 12, 1952 to Joseph and Deloris Buckles and sister to Sandra, Carol and Kathleen. JoAnn was a loving wife to Raymond DeBuck Sr. for 42 years and mother to six children, 13 grandchildren and one great-grand child. JoAnn was a remarkable woman who in 1978 married Raymond with each having three kids and built a family on the promise of nothing other than love, partnership, and trust in each other. They moved their 6 kids to Sterling Heights, to start their lives together. In addition to raising 6 young children, JoAnn worked several jobs to contribute financially including temp services, waitress, retail and eventually becoming a school bus driver for Warren Consolidated Schools where she retired. JoAnn was a woman full of life and laughter, with a quick wit and sense of humor who was the life of any party. She was not a woman to shy away from life's pleasures and indulged in delicious foods, spirits, and merriment. Never one to cast the first stone, JoAnn was available to her children and grandchildren without judgement or condensation. She simply offered a safe space and ear for anyone in need. JoAnn is survived by her 5 remaining children and their spouses and (children) - Ray DeBuck Jr and Kennie-Lynn (Kaelyn, Makenna, Genevieve); Jeffrey DeBuck and Sheila (Austin, Andrew, Abrielle); Cynthia and Mike Reager (Madison, Nolan); Eric Nolan and Leisa (Jasper, Violet); James Nolan (Ethan and great grandchild-Aiden). JoAnn will be laid to rest near her late daughter Brenda DeBuck/Moskal (Anthony, Adriana) at Christian Memorial Cemetery West in Rochester Hills, MI. JoAnn's family will receive friends for a memorial gathering on Saturday, May 14, 2022 from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at the Wm. “ Ugh. So sad to hear that my cousin JoAnn is gone. Cindy what a beautiful tribute to your mom. We all loved to sit and hear her tell stories. She was funny and loving. I loved how she always included us in family gatherings and honored our cousin "ship" even though my parents got a divorce when we were young. JoAnn welcomed us back in as adults and I really appreciated that. Until we meet again. Love you JoAnn.

My love and sincere condolence to all the DeBuck children and their families, and to you Big Ray. It has been many years since I have seen or spoken to Joanne or any of you. My brother, Ken, called me the other night to let me know of Joanne's passing. We had been reminiscing about the good ole days when we were all closer just a day or so before he saw the news on fb. Joanne was my salvation and best friend while living in Fairview and years after we had to move. Her quick wit and friendship remains cherished by me. She helped me thru some tough times and I will always be thankful for that. God rest and bless her soul.
