“ Mark asked me to give him one or two words to describe Mom?
How can I describe her with a couple of words? What words?

OK. let me think...

She sent me my favorite See's dark chocolate with nuts for Christmas and my birthday, every year.

She chipped in and bought me a 65" TV for my big birthday, even though she always questioned me for wanting a big TV.

She hand-wrote and sent me the pinochle rules in the mail because she knows I always break the rules.

She sent me articles in the mail when I was complaining about the sciatica pain

She came and visited us every year, hung out with all our friends and neighbors, drank beer, played cards, watched movies, went places, ate junk food and talked our language.

She always hugged me with a kiss and said 'Raymond I missed
you' every time I came into town.

She even ate sushi for the first time ever in her life (just watch the attached video) just to be with us.

And Mom always managed to shut me up whenever I complained by saying 'Raymond! Live with it!' with a shrug..... oh I've got it, I am going to borrow her words. The words are 'Mom had always lived with me'

“ I've been blessed to know many strong women in my life. Joan was one of them. Classy with a touch of sassy. We could talk about anything...and we did over the years. It was a blessing to be able to care for her in her final days. She will be greatly missed.
