“ In 1952 I worked at Ann's Dairy Bar with Joan. She was a very nice person to me (I was 14 and very shy). Where she lived they did not have an oven, she came to my mom's and enjoyed baking. A sister of Joe's lived on Rochelle and that was how I got the job.

“ Mrs. Chris, I cannot even imagine the strength that you possess to handle this loss. What an incredible woman your mother was, and that you are as well. May she find peace with her husband in the next life. Thinking of you and your family.

“ Christine and family- sorry for your loss. I know how very close all of you were and I loved seeing your post showing your love for your mom. She is now with your dad again, I hope you find comfort in that. Prayers for strength!
