“ There is so much to be said about this wonderful woman! She was the best grandma and I am so thankful she was a huge part of my life. The memories I have will never fade! From sleepovers at her house when I was younger, my love of Willy Wonka and The Trouble with Angels, her trying to pull out one of my teeth with pliers, sitting in the hallway at her old house when a tornado was spotted very close, putting banana stickers on her back when we went shopping together, calling her all the time to chat about anything and everything...I'll never forget her reaction when she found out she was going to be a great-grandma, and the love she had for my daughter... I will make sure Brooke never forgets! I loved her more than words can ever explain. She fought long and hard to stick around as long as possible for our family and I'm forever grateful.

Rest easy and breathe easy gram, you will forever be loved and missed!
