“ I just learned of your passing my dear friend JoAnn. After all the trauma you experienced in life, you were so brave and so upbeat despite everything. We were friends since college; our daughters were born within months of each other. You will always be my hero, I'll always be your Canadian friend.

*JoAnn,
I came into your life at the end, and only knew you for a short time. However, you had a wonderful way of touching the people around you with your strength, and grace. Thank you for supporting my family through the difficult birth of my daughter. Having someone to talk to who had been through the same thing, was the most precious gift that can be given. I feel so thankful that I was given the chance to be with you at the hospital, and at the every end.

I am a neighbor of JoAnn's, but I actually got to know her through some volunteer work she did for me at my last place of employment. JoAnn single-handedly knitted almost 1000 hats for our newborns at the local hospital. She was always such a kind and gracious person and I so enjoyed our conversations. She always had something fun to talk about. I didn't know that she passed away and over the last few days, I've seen people with Uhauls packing up her house and got concerned. I am terribly saddened to hear this news; she was a lovely and strong lady. My deepest sympathy to her family and her precious daughter. Would someone mind contacting with me? Rsboad@aol.com
