“ We dearly remember Joanne as our neighbor. We would attend her Christmas parties for her residents each year, We came to know each of her residents. I, and my wife Dolores (deceased) would visit her often. For the past several years I, along with Diane, a close friend of Joanne, would go together to the monthly luncheon at Our Shepherd. We would have lunch together at the Senior Center eating at the same table of eight for many years. Joanne loved the luncheons we would go to and she loved her deserts. All said, Joanne will be missed at the Senior Center and at Our Shepherd. God's Peace be with you, Carl F. Zimmerman
