“ Brian, the first time I ever saw you,you were in kindergarten, not very happy about being there. As the years went by, you became a friend to both of my sons and a favorite around our home! I can now see that little boy again and I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and Kennedy and will continue for Jodi. God bless you and your families.....

“ When I meet Jodi about 20 yrs ago, she was so fun, full of life, with crazy hair, and beautiful inside and out. She had a huge heart and she wore her feelings on her sleeve. She was one of the best things that ever happened to my friend Kristin Marciniak Horton. Jodi and Kristin learned to laugh, love and enjoy life as roommates in college. They laughed more in a few years, then many laugh in a life time. Best of friends they became and always stayed in each others lives. I am so sorry for this huge loss that Kristin and many of you are enduring. I hope for comfort and some peace to the hearts of her family and friends. Amie Munger

“ Jodi was so much fun to work with. She was so funny when she got worked up about her political viewpoints. When she was pregnant with Kennedy, she received many suggestions for names from co-workers. She loved to find out different cultures. She was a beautiful person and soul and will be missed greatly.
