“ Jodi, our beautiful daughter Jodi. It's been over a year now since you left us but it still feels like yesterday. We think of you 24/7 and miss you so much that our hearts ache on a daily basis. We try to find things to say that make us laugh but sometimes that's worse because we want YOU here saying those things. It's an undescrivable feeling to lose a child so young and beautiful, with a one of a kind personality. You are truly a classic and I know you are making everyone happy up in heaven. I always envied your personality and wanted to be more like you. We love you so much Jodi, and miss you so deeply. God Bless you and keep you safe until we can be together again. With love forever and ever...Mom & Bruce.

“ Jodi, I will love you forever - you are my heart and soul. Much love, Shelly Hear these words my beloved: As my heart holds you Just one beat away I cherish all you gave me Everyday Cause you are my Forever love Watching me from up above And I believe That angels breathe And that love will live on and never leave Fly me up to where you are Beyond the distant star I wish upon tonight To see you smile If only for awhile To know you're there A breath away's not far To where you are “ Jodi I remember the time you, Katie and I tied together sheets to sneek out of the second floor bedroom on Gardner. Unfortunatly the sheets ripped on me, but you and Katie caught me on the way down. I was scared out of mind then, but have had good laughs about it since. Though we live our lives miles apart you were apart of my family and I have been a part of yours. I love you and will miss you.

“ Jody Girl, You told me many times, You were the Young version of me! You showed me Pictures that made my Hair On on my arms stand Straight up, we did look so much a like in our younger days! Now your going to stay young and beautiful forever! Just figurer's!!! Thanks for the laughs and the Memories. You shared your life,love and friends with me and so many people.You will always be alive and in our hearts, we have great stories and some great laughs you left us with! You touched a lot of life's in your time here. I'll never forget that Thanks Giving you spent with us just a while back! My mother was gravely ill, you did her hair that day, you made her feel special and pretty! That was so sweet and kind of you! Mom left shortly after that, and that day met a lot to me! I hope you'll both run into each other up in Heaven! She will be in good company, I'm sure you'll make her laugh! THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES! Kisses and Hugs Vicky

“ When I heard the news I thought no not "Buckner" how could she have passed so young it must be a mistake. How could someone who was always happy and smiling be gone. Is this the same girl who lit up the crowd that always seemed to be around her. Shelly I know I will probably never meet you but I would like you to know, I will always think of happy memories when I remember Jodi. God must of needed her more than us.

“ Pat, Mike, and families--- It has been "forever" since I have seen or talked to you guys--but I will never forget you all. Pat, you were my 1st babysitting job when we all lived in the townhouses in Pontiac. Craig and Jodi were my favorite kids ever to watch. Jodi was always my little shawdow and I had soo much fun dressing her up. Susie gerber and i used to watch them together and they were both such wonderful kids. It sounds like Jodi had that beautiful smile still--- what a terrible loss to have lost her soo soon---My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I still remember when Jodi was really little , we would ask her whar her name was and she would sat "Dodi Lynn Butner" as fast as she could---it was a riot. Well, I just wanted you to know i am thinking of you through this tough time. Lots of love and hugs, Kelly Pierce Cosgrove

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family and to the friends. Jodi Buckner is a name that I remember in my youth she was an arch rival on the ball field. It was a name that we dreaded to go up against - she was a star. It was only recently when I came across her name again - in the "small world" meeting of her brother, a good friend to my husband and now his family that he has been reacquainted with in his travels to FL. We are very sorry to hear of your sudden and tragic loss. Jodi did make quite an impression on the world, even at youth. Think positive. We were all blessed to cross paths with Jodi. “ Jodi, the summer of 1994 is when I met you; you taught me how to play ucher, we drank, smiled, and laughed hard... and then there was the time you couldn't get your hair just right and threw you brush at the wall and it stuck! I still tell that story when I hear your name or think of you. You were always fun and full of life during the moments in which we were together. I know your in a better place, but I know too that you will be sorely missed. You were very loved.

I didn't know her very well in high school, but I remember when we had our mini-reunion in 2001, I found her to be such a sweet person. “ As I sit here trying to think what to say, all I can think of is the things that I wished for you and Shelly, and the things that I wish I had done. I wish that I'd had my camera out when we had the barbeque a few weeks ago, so I could have captured your beautiful smile once more. I wish you'd been able to play softball with us. I wish you and Shelly had been given the time to grow old together. I wish for a lot of things that weren't meant to be, and it reminds me of JoDee Messina's song, "Heaven Was Needing A Hero", where she says "No matter how much we need you now, Heaven needed you more." Thank you for being there for my best friend, my sister in everything but blood, and also for touching all of our lives. Love, Jen

“ As I sit here trying to write something to you I am not sure where to begin. We have been friends since I could remember, and even though not as close in recent years, you were always in my thoughts and prayers. Upon hearing the news that you have left this world for a better one I felt really selfish because I just wanted ONE more laugh, ONE more hug, ONE more moment with you. I looked at pictures of you, of us, and we were so full of life. Our lives unburdened. Not like recent years when growing up seemed to be the order of the day. It makes me appreciate life and you and the times that we had together even more. And although we aren't together anymore, Jodi, you will live on in my heart and all of our hearts forever. There was much love for you, my friend, I hope that you know that. I also hope that your family knows that and that they will find peace in time. Let us celebrate you, your life, and the love that you were so willing to give to the people around you. Goodbye my friend.
