“ When John would come to visit me in North Carolina one of our favorite things to do was to sit outside on my deck in the backyard and talk about all the wonderful times we have had together and all the things we did together as father and son. We had such a a close bond that not many knew about...we could laugh together ,joke around and even cry together. We would sit there and talk for hours about his future ..his plans and everything he worked so hard to accomplish. I am so very proud of both of my sons and I love them more than they could ever know. I would always have done anything I could for both of them. My sons called “Pops” and that was my “nickname” when we shared many conversations ,laughs and late night games together on X Box. Not many people knew but this was “OUR” special time together ..miles were between us but that only made our bond stronger. We always had the best time laughing and joking a lot while gaming together. I will certainly miss how he use to make others laugh while on X Box with his sense of humor but most of all this was “our time” together and what I will miss the most. John was such a happy young and handsome young man and he will always remain that way. I find peace and strength knowing you are in heaven my son !!! I love you John and I will see you again someday!!!

“ My dear sweet step son..As I sit here this morning trying to gather my thoughts and make sense of this all there are several things that give me peace ..first and foremost is that you believed in God and I know you are in heaven rejoicing and with loved ones who are already there. I know you look down and worry about your family especially your Dad,Mom and Daniel. I promise you that I will take good care of your Dad , we both know he’s a lot stronger than most people think..I will be there to pick him up and give him love and strength when he needs it most. . I will do my best to stay in close contact with your Mom and Daniel but I also know they have you as their angel now and they too will find peace and strength in the days that lie ahead!!! I sure hope you knew how proud your Dad was of you, the look on his face and how his eyes would light up when he talked about how much you have accomplished!! He was so proud of both of his boys and my goodness loves you both beyond words!! Our days will be difficult but we will carry you with us in our hearts and knowing you are in heaven will give us peace and strength!! I love you more than you could imagine!!! RIP sweetie (as I always called you). We will definitely see you again someday!!

“ John,
It's almost impossible to put the pain in my heart into words. I love you. We didn't always see eye to eye but you were always special to me and you always will be! You gave me the most precious gift life offers... our daughter. She is you in every way. I see you in every move she makes, every smile, every laugh, everything. She is just crushed. She said to me.... why did it have to be you?! Didn't God know you were her best friend? I promise you I'm doing everything I can to comfort her. Just please guide her through life. I promised her you were there in every silent moment, every heart beat, every random laugh. We let balloons go today with messages on them for you in heaven. Hope you got to read them. ❤️ See you again one day. Until then... miss you.

“ My Funny,fun,crazy nephew. You have been a godsend the last six years. Always willing to help me with everything at home. You may have drove me crazy as a roommate sometimes but, our bond is untouchable because of it. I miss you so much already. Such a void at home now my heart is breaking. You should have no more stress now, everything will come easy. Fly high John right to Aunt Deb. Kiss her for me. Until we meet again 🥰❤️ RIP I Love You
