“ My dad was the kindest, sweetest man that ever lived. He touched all who knew him with his gentle, quiet nature. He rarely raised his voice in anger and he never spoke an unkind word about anyone. He loved his family. His roots were out in Oregon where he enjoyed fishing in the Willamette River and skiing down Mt. Hood. His parents both lived past their 90s. He was proud of his service in the Navy. He met my mom in Detroit where they settled and raised my brother, sister and I. He spoke often of his work at Chrysler Missile Defense and the Warren Tank Plant. As a hobby, he enjoyed tinkering with old radios. His three grandchildren were a source of great joy to him. I will truly miss him both as a father and as a friend.
