“ Aunt Rose, Very sorry to hear of your loss, youÆre Life Partner, John. You two were always an incredible couple. You and John always lightened up a party and I always gravitated toward the both of you. You listened to my jokes, Remember the "Sophie Tucker Jokes?". John told me the history of Detroit and Fords, talked about the deer in the back yard and Berkley. You both are wonderful people. Have always thought about the fact, that if it wasn't for your Brother, I would never have met and loved the Faust. Two very special people, who tolerated, listened and accepted me. Love you Terry
