“Never a frown, never a bad thing to say -- not in the 27 years that I've known him. He always had a joke and a laugh. The last visit I had with him was the best.

“ My Dear Uncle John. He made me laugh on so many occasions, no matter what I said he always had some witty response. He loved our family and we loved him. He made my Aunt smile and laugh and truly adored her. They were a true gift to one other. God bless him, he is home now.
