“ I met John at his apartment after HIS ONLY SON Scott Harder and I had been married a couple of years. The only other time I seen him was when he surprised us at the hospital when HIS ONLY grandchild was born. We made arrangements for him to stay with us and visit for a few days but he never showed up. Scott called several times and never got anyone and we periodically stopped by his apartment. I love how ALL of Scott's family excluded Scott from the family AND from knowing that HIS FATHER had passed away. You also excluded JOHNS ONLY SON from the obituary. Classy bunch the Harders and his greedy "friend" Ralph! This was not right at all!!! What did Scott ever do to any of you to be treated in such a way and to find out about his father by searching obituaries??? You all had his phone number and his grandma's phone number and Scott is on facebook AND LinkedIn!!!! NO EXCUSES for not allowing a son to have the last moments with his dyeing father and excluding him from the funeral service!!!! Best of Karma for your futures!

“ To the family of John Harder : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.
