“ Jack was an all-around good guy. He loved to chat, and I especially remember his stories about college life and the KoC poppy drive. I lost touch with him after leaving Michigan, but never stopped thinking of my fond memories of him. He will be missed greatly. Thinking of his loved ones, and wishing you all peace and comfort.

“ I knew Jack at BRHS. He was always a very kind soul with a beautiful outlook on life. We chatted often about his many charitable works.

May you find comfort that he is at peace.

Warmly,

Mary Pat Stoltman
