“ Marge, so sorry for your troubles! Such a gentle man...and gentleman. Know you and the boys are in prayer these coming days. Jack is home and at peace. Sometimes it is hard to think in those ways when all we want is him here. Our faith will get us through the coming months. Forgotten?- never, but remembered with joy!

“ Dear Elliott family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one John Elliott. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
