“ Our sincerest condolences to Lisa and family. Uncle Jack was such a sweet man. I am so glad he, my dad and Mr. Cottrell were able to get together last year for a rip roaring lunch and shared memories before my dad left us. I fondly recall the holidays of my youth at Uncle Jack's house. I am glad that he lived such a long a fruitful life and that the Smith brothers are together again in heaven. May he rest in peace for the eternity. Ono and I are sorry we cannot make the ceremony but our prayers are with him from our home in Alabama.
