“ I can not think of a time we spent together that we didn't laugh. You have been a part of my life since I was a kid. I will miss the man that would drive the 15 miles to my house to bring Juji a sucker and give her a hug. Rest in Peace my friend I love you...

“ I love you, Stoner! I can't imagine my childhood without you and I am so glad that you were my Uncle Johnny. Thank you for being a great dad to Oscar and thank you for being there for me when I was in need. I could always count on you for a joke, a smile, or to jump out and scare me. You will never be forgotten.

“ Dear Kuchulan family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one John Kuchulan. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
