“ Dear Roger and the Weber Family I am saddened to hear the passing of John. We all met back in the mid 80S the Mae Stecker Softball days and the Frosty Mug era. We all competed against one another. Somebody won ..somebody lost ..But we all laughed and enjoyed a cold one after the games. One day I felt honored when I was asked to play with all of you .John , Roger, Gary Hornung and the rest of the boys. I dont think we won many games but we created friendships. A few years later it was always a pleasure when you John and Lowell would stop in at the Shamrock and enjoy the Lions game .A burger and some good conversation. I always enjoyed the company . Once again I am very saddened to hear of Johns passing.

“ I considered John to be one of my best friends. For years he and I have had so many adventures, out exploring nature. John showed me all the nature trails at the State parks, kayaked with me everywhere, we ran races together, we spent whole weekends on our bikes. We hiked all the South eastern michigan trails. John was there for me through the hardest times of my life, he always cheered me up and was so very thoughtful. He would bring me mushrooms he had gathered and never forget a holiday or my birthday. John was always there when I needed a friend and never forgot to call me back, he rushed to my side when I was lonely. He was my study buddy for college. I know that John lived life to the fullest and died doing something he loved. I love you John and I cant imagine what life will be like without you near by. As a memorial I have adopted a cat that looks like an Ocelot, an animal that John liked and I have named him 'Weber'. May you kayak in heaven my dear friend.

“ Although we have not seen or talked to John since we moved to Florida, we thought of him often. John was a truly good friend, and word of his passing saddens us deeply. His spirit lives on, when I look at my trading cards, Sergei Fedorovs graduation picture, Karens favorite or most importantly his little framed caricature drawing celebrating Karen's 40th birthday. It still has a prominent place in our family room all these years later. We believe that John is in a better place, where we will some day see you again.

“ I too have very fond memories of John. Words can not express my sadness that I feel right now. Kathy was right, he along with the rest of my friends made Kathy feel like part of the "GUYS", even though she is a girl. What a great guy, a mans man, John, you will be missed very much.

“ I will always remember how John and the guys made me feel welcome when I started dating Lowell. It meant a lot to me to feel accepted and liked by his friends. I also remember all of the times we would watch Sunday football at the house and the Rose Bowl parties. I will also cherish the drawings that he gave Lowell and I, especially the one of Maui. We will miss him.
