“ my sympathy to the family of John Medvec. I had the honor of knowing John for many years through square dancing with him and Audrey. He was a true gentleman. Always greeting you with a smile and a hug. Canada

“ Dear Lynn,I am so sorry to hear of your dad\'s passing. You dad was such a kind and sweet man as if you didn\'t already know. I never, ever saw him mad. He is why you are so sweet and kind. My dad always spoke so highly of your dad. He is the last of the "Lenox men" and now they are all in heaven together. They were sure a good group of men who always worked together on a project be it, cutting down a tree, installing a fence or working on a car. . . they enjoyed helping each other. The best part for them was having a cold beer afterwards and talking about the job that was done. We can sure be proud of all of our parents. . . they were good people. I know you will miss him and he cannot be replaced - - ever. We are lucky to have had their guidance for our lives. I am and will be thinking about you and am sorry that I can\'t be with you this week. We live too far away for me to come down. I will send you a card and will send you my new information of where we are now living. We should at least keep in touch at Christmas time from now on. Take care of yourself and try to have a Merry Christmas. Much love, Linda LePage McCown and husband Harry

“ My grandpa John was the best grandfather a kid could ask for. He always went above and beyond to make sure we always had fun time no matter the holiday or occasion. Like when he would have easter egg hunts at his house for Easter, or spending the time he did building all of his grandchildren there own personal tables and chairs, and a teter totter that has left me with tons of unforgettable memories. I never seen my grandpa in a bad mood, or angry. His mannerisms were always very calm and welcoming. I am truly lucky I was able to have him as grandfather. I will miss him deeply, but always remember the times we have shared. Love you grandpa, and rest in peace.Dawn Medvec

“ John Medvec was one of my most favorite people in the world. As my father in law and grandfather to my children. Holidays were the best just being together or any other time. He will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Rest in peace John.Debbie Spasoff

“ Uncle John was my favorite uncle. I'll always remember the holiday family gatherings when I was a kid. It was especially nice to see him last year and reconnect after so many years. I'm glad he had a long and full life.
