“ Never turning down a conversation or an opportunity to spread your knowledge and experience, your curiosity for life was truly infectious. A simple observation taken from your 93 years of life turned into a conversation ranging from current events to obscure facts from the past. My memories of an insatiable desire for hard candy and a zeal for a warm doughnut on the golfcart will never be forgotten. I feel incredibly grateful to have been a part of your life and your advice and counsel have impacted the person I am today.
Love, Your Grandson, Colin

“ I will never forget the zeal for learning that you always had. Amongst your endless array of vast knowledge that you wanted everyone to know, you always had your ears open to hear what others had to say on the topic. I can say that I am much more fit for any potential bouts on Jeopardy I might have in the future due to my conversations with you. The times when I could bring something new to the table and wow you with an obscure fact or modern development were some of the best. You were loved by all and will be missed by all. Love,

“ Phil It does not seem all that long ago that a 70 year old Jack was just one of the boys on our golf trip to Hilton Head. It was fun for me to get to know him since I was working for his brother Frank. Your dad was with out question one of the greats. Warm regards, Bruce Shapiro

“ Mrs. Moran and Family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I had the pleasure of meeting and treating Mr. Moran for a short period of time in Physical Therapy. What I truly will remember about him is when he would come into therapy he would always be happy and sing good morning to you, that would make my day. I believe in my heart he is in heaven singing with the angels now and one day we will all see him again. God bless you and your family in your time of loss. Deborah White

“ Luke your father must have been a great dad because I can see the love you have for your kids and I can only imagine that you picked up some or all of that from him. Although he probably beat you more than you have beat your kids I'm sure he will be missed. Just thinking of you and your family during this time. Love The Goose

“ Dear Moran Family: After the age of 50 you are curious about the obituaries. I saw the face of Jack and I thought of all the great times with Jack. The jokes, the flowers and lawn which lead to "Easy Bagger". Jack was creative and full of great ideas Monroe shook absorber ad -Jack debated the musical contributions of Cole Porter vs. John Lennon with Phil. Most of all I learned about the big Catholic family at the Morans, I thought about Jack and Pat many times when I completed RCIA and became a Catholic. Thanks for all of the family times- you will never know what an impact your family had on my life. Love, Rocky “ Phil, Luke, John, Matt, Mark and families: I was so sorry to hear about Jack's passing. I will never forget the first time I met Jack and all of his sons on my first Myrtle Beach golf trip. I knew there was something special about Jack by witnessing the closeness of the family. In the years to come, I received several personal notes in the mail from Jack. When we lost our son Nathan, Jack again took the time to send his words of condolences and encouragement. He had a way with words that meant a lot to me, and I'm sure many others whose lives he has touched over the years. You were blessed to have Jack for so many years. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
