“ Sue & I are so happy that we got to meet Sam & have him become a part of our lives. We always looked forward to our Saturday morning cleanings because we enjoyed the conversations we would have with Sam. We began cleaning when Paula still lived at home & we always got a kick out of visiting with her too. We have a favorite memory of Sam that I feel I cannot share here because it would include some swear words, but I must say Sue & I laughed about it for months after it happened. Sam was kind, humorous & very generous to us. We will miss you Sam but know that you are now happy & at peace with your lovely wife. R.I.P. Sam <3 <3
