Dearest Paul Family, I have so many times enjoyed Johns company. I was young man when I meet him and have always looked up to him. What wonderful man. We are so sorry for you loss.

“ I have lived in the same neighborhood for 30 years and have known John for a very long time. I enjoyed watching him taking his beloved dog for a walk every morning and spoke to him briefly on my way to work then. We got to know one another better in 2015 and I learned that while he served in the Army he was stationed in Fuerth, just about half an hour away from where I grew up in Stein near Nuremberg, Germany. We exchanged many memories of that place and looked at pictures. He was kind and helpful and was considered the neighborhood handy man. He helped me out a few times when things needed to be done in my home and we enjoyed many cups of coffee together with fresh baked Banana bread that he enjoyed. John was the kindest neighbor I have known. I appreciated his willingness to always be there when needed and was willing to help out.

I miss you, John, and the laughter we shared, but I know that you are with your beloved wife and in a better place where there is no sickness. Rest in peace my friend.
