November 22, 1944 - June 1, 2023

John Michael "Jack" Peake, 78, of Sterling Heights, passed away on June 1, 2023, in Troy, Michigan.

He was a long-time active member at St Lawrence Catholic Church and the St. Lawrence Knight of Columbus Council #2950. Jack served with the United States Army, discharged Honorably.

“ I am saddened to hear of Jack's passing. What a great guy he was. He was always kind to me and my family and I enjoyed sharing laughs with him very much. One day when I get to heaven I hope I get to see Jack in his red shoes again. My deepest sympathy to Joe, Amy, Gavin, Avery and the wonderful Darlene. God Bless all of you! Kevin Warren

“ Jack was such a great neighbor of ours on Rex Street. He was always interested in what was happening in our lives, and even after after he moved he and Darlene would stop by and have a chat. I remember his smiling face at Beaumont at the reception desk too. We'll miss you Jack! Rest peacefully with our Lord!

“ I’m not very good at putting my thoughts into words and my heart is aching so I don’t know how to express the way I feel at losing my dear friend of many years. Even though he would drive me crazy at times I loved him dearly and we would text each other all the time. I will miss taking the remote away from him when I would visit and have coffee with my dear friend Darlene. I think I’m the only one he would give up the remote to. He loved my visits but I really think he loved my dog Blackie visiting more than me 🐾. He is up in heaven now with my late husband George and if he needs a watch in heaven he never has to worry about setting it because George will do it for him like he did for so many years here on earth. God Bless you John Michael and may you rest in peace. Prayers to his family at this difficult time.
