“ My condolences to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. Mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief that can result from the death of a loved one. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.- Psalms 55:22

*So sad to hear this.
I cared for John at Bordman home. He was always happy and super fun to be around.
He was always a big flirt...made us laugh daily.
Heaven gained an angel in John.
Praying for his family...I know this is hard.*

So sorry to hear of your loss. My time with John at DES was a blessing, I fell in love with him the first time he gave me that adorable smile. The world is a little darker without his ray of sunshine he brought where ever he went. I will miss you my little Johnny. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, friends and caretakers.

*With much love and wonderful memories,
Julie Sorensen*
