“ Dear Johnny, what I remember best is your love of laughter and sharing it with our mom whom you loved so much. I remember coming home from school and walking up the drive to hear the two of you laughing hilariously. I remember you taking my son, Mark Joseph, to ride your beloved horse and sharing your love of Bob-lo with all of us. You were such a large part of our growing up. You had great joy in your heart and an unselfish love for all you claimed as your family and friends. You are sorely missed until we meet again. ”

“ 3/21/2014 8:04 PM JohnnyB . . . You taught us all how to laugh, and more-so you showed us that there was much more to laugh about than to be sorrowful about. When I was just a kid you taught me how to throw a spin on a bowling ball and celebrated with me my first strike and "over 100 game". You planted your heart and spirit in the memory of many of your family, cousins and friends and you had a passion for the people and the things in life that you truly loved. There is something about healing when someone close, someone loved moves on, and the power in healing is to remember the joy a loved one brought to the moments together and the love they served up without reservation. You brought that to family and your memory runs deep. Take care cousin, rest. Love - Cousin Mark

“ Johnny Bill, I will always remember you as a big part of my childhood, taking my sister and your sisters to Bob-Lo and spoiling us rotten. You were always so good to us as little kids, with you being the older cool cousin. As we got older your sense of humor kept us laughing for hours. You were always a dear sweet man who always had time for us younger cousins. When we got older and I got married and had my own children you were just as kind. Taking us to the Hunt Club to see your horse Premontion, something my boys never forgot. God Bless you my dear cousin, I will see you again. Your Cousin, Robin Hudd Missant
