

John Paul Weted II

August 15, 1974 - December 12, 2023

John Weted, 49, passed away on December 12, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of warmth, generosity, and cherished memories. Born on August 15, 1974, in Madison Heights, Michigan, John embraced life with a passion for family, friendship, and simple joys.

A true embodiment of selflessness, John found joy in caring for others, always seeking ways to make those around him comfortable and content. Whether hosting gatherings where he showcased his culinary skills or inviting friends for a leisurely lunch, his genuine care and hospitality touched many family members and friends. He truly embodied all 5 of the love languages.

John's zest for life extended to his hobbies and interests. He was an avid fan of the Detroit Tigers and a wine aficionado. Road trips, golfing, hunting, and serene moments by the lake with his family brought him happiness and created lasting memories.

Above all, John was a devoted husband to Amanda, a loving father to Gavin and Henri, and a dear son of Chris and Anita Caird. He leaves behind siblings Kelly (Don) Hudson, Sean (Alisia) Caird, Kevin (Lien) Rosner, and Libby Caird; nephew Tyler Caird; and niece Adrielle Caird. John is also survived by his grandparents Richard and Marilyn Rosner as well as John Becker, his aunts Joanne Myers and Sue Devlin, and uncles Paul (Sybil Siadi) Weted and Steve (Kelly) Starbek. The number of friends that he leaves behind is immeasurable.

A memorial visitation will be held on Tuesday, starting at 10:00 am until the time of the Memorial Service at 12:00 pm at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W. Eleven Mile Road (4 blocks E. of Woodward), Royal Oak.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Gleaners Community Food Bank at <https://donor.gcfb.org/page/2023EndofYear>
