“ He was my playmate, my protector and my inspiration! One very cold and snowy morning when he was just 6 years old and I was 4, Joe suggested that we fill a basket with snow and save it in the playhouse for summer. Then we could play with snow in the summer too! From then on I thought he was brilliant! Best brother ever!

“ Joe was my favorite player to watch during the American Legion softball years. Nice-looking, athletic guy, with a great mustache - and he played the infield where everything was close and fast. Wonderful memories. Very sorry for your loss, Janet and the family. Love, Ken (Gleason)

“ Way back in the day and one of the first dates that Joe had with my sister Janet and came over to the house to pick her up and at that time (not sure if my age) I liked to pretend I was a dog or a horse and Joe was sitting on the couch at our house and I came crawling around the corner and took a bite out of his leg growling and barking the whole time 😂😂 but he still married Janet ! Even with this crazy family ! I loved Joe and he was always kind and supportive to me when I lost my husband ... not sure if it was just me that thought whenever Joe laughed his nose always went to the side ? He was a good man and he is with my rick ❤️
