“ *Joe,
You were such a fantastic friend and landlord to when I lived in your special place on the lake. I will miss you terribly. Our shore will never be the same without you.

“ Joe...

Thank you for your competitive spirit and leaving some of us with a lasting lesson that a round of golf is not necessarily won by how well one plays but how well one negotiates before he plays.

Thank you for your jovial presence at the pinocle/poker gatherings at Harry's place where you contributed to the atmosphere that winning was overshadowed by the pleasures of reminiscing, story telling, joking and laughing.

Thank you for being part of the Munising Gang where we spent a week of two, usually in May, playing golf at the Pictured Rocks GC and fishing the nearby rivers in the daytime. Night time would find us engaging the patrons of the local pubs in the games of ping pong, shuffleboard and pool.

We earned some of their respect in those areas however we also earned the designation as the "Munising Conservation Gang" which was more than likely due to the fact that our fishing abilities did little to diminish their trout population.

Thank you for your daily/weekly e-mails which on many occasions would cause one to break out with belly shaking laughter.

Most of all Joe, thank you for your friendship, you were a joy to be around.

Your wit and humor has contributed to many cherished memories and you will be sorely missed.

We bid you farewell dear friend, may the angels of Heaven greet your soul.

“ Joe and I attended a good many Tiger games some together and some where my tickets were in a different section, but I always would drop by and say hello to Joe. One particular game last season I had tickets in another section so I stopped to say hello to Joe, he had a lady around 85 or so with him, I whispered in Joe's ear so she could not hear me and said Joe she is way to old for you. Joe and I burst into laughter.

Barb, Gloria, Paula and families,

We often passed your father as we were leaving the lake and he was coming to the lake. We will always remember the sparkle in his eyes and his joy of life. I am sure all of you were the reason for that joy. Our sympathy is with you.

Dear Bucciero sisters, my sister and I were sorry to see your dad's obituary in Sundays paper. Our dad's had such a long friendship. I like to think that they are together in Heaven, once again reminiscing about the good old days in the "old neighborhood"! Much sympathy to you.
