“ Our beloved brother-in-law; he will be missed. Trish will never forget the first time she met him as Sue brought him to Trish's company barbecue. She liked him immediately; the frozen margaritas didn't hurt. Soon after, the four of us went out for dinner so we could get to know him better. When dinner was over, we headed out to The Blue Goose Inn for some blues and drinks. We had a blast, and went out many times to hear blues bands.

We went on a lot of adventures together; the Polish festival in Hamtramck, golfing on Harsens Island (getting through customs was a bit tricky as Joe shakily stated for us all "No, no, nothing to declare officer" - we were then pulled over and asked for our ID's even though nothing was amiss - he just looked guilty); anytime we got into Joe's vehicle, radio blasting, tires squealing, we had FUN! The many New Year's Eve sleepovers at our house and celebrating 1999 together while singing to Prince. Lots of birthday parties and doctoring up of birthday cards as we would all try to outdo each other for laughs.

He had a great sense of humor and could always make us laugh with his quick wit or by wearing a weird wig, funny glasses or just by his facial expressions. Now, through our tears, we will laugh remembering the good times we had with him.

Rest in peace dear Joe.

Love,
Bob and Trish

B&

Sorry, we meant golfing on Walpole Island, NOT Hardens Island; thus the customs stop.
