“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have some very sweet memories of Joe as he was my first boyfriend 43 years ago. I was 17 and Joe was 21. Joe used to hang out at my dad's gas station as many other guys did and my dad let them work on their cars. That's how I met him. What a sweet guy. Thought the world of him. Sadly the relationship ended but we remained friends because that's how Joe was. Sounds like his sweetness never changed. God Bless you Joe and all the people in your life who you loved and lives you touched.

“ To the family of Joseph Cahours: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ I have many memories of Joe, but today I will leave my last because this one like many before it shows just what kind of person Joe was. " Ok, just let me know what day and I'll bring her to your house. Also what time and I will be sure to be there by then. "

That is the very last text I received from Joe. A man willing to help anyone even if it meant driving 45 min. out of his way to drop his Granddaughter off just so she could have a play date with her best friend & driving 45 min. home. But, that's the kind of man he was. He was a memorable & encouraging father who loved both of his daughters & he was beyond proud of the women they grew to be. He was also the most outstanding " Papa" there was never a hesitation to be there for them only the question of how soon he could get there.

Joe, the hardest thing about your death is we weren't able to tell you just how much we appreciated all of the things you didn't think twice to do.

Love Always,
Eva (Steve, Betty & Pops)
