“ Dear Joe, Sorry to read about your father. My sympathy to your family. I see we have a connection. My first husband's mother lives in Columbia, TN. My current husband and I were there last month on the way to Houston for our granddaughter's wedding. My first husband died in 1994 and I married my current husband in 1998. Next month will mark 10 wonderful years together. We have 17 grandchildren and live in Troy. Would be glad to hear from you.
