“ Joe shared his vibrant energy here at the Clawson Senior as he lead the AARP tax program for us. He was always there to answer my many computer questions. He strived to make the AARP tax program the best it could be for all the people it served. We will miss him and send out deepest sympathy to all of his family.

“ Joe was a dear man who will be missed by many especially in our Pinochle Club. When Joe & my husband Roy were together, our night was full of laughter & silliness. May the two of them meet again and enjoy getting together with the rest of the gang, who have gone on to eternal rest, for a heavenly Pinochle club. My condolences to Carol & her family. Joe will be forever in our hearts .
