

Joseph P. Klingkammer

November 19, 1929 - February 3, 2023

Joseph P. Klingkammer passed away at the age of 93 on February 3, 2023, at Sandalwood Care Facility where he was loved and cared for by many of the staff.

Beloved husband of the late Leona Klingkammer for 57 years.

Loving father of, Sheryl (Jerry) Morris, Arlene (Brian) Hooper, Gary (Mary Anne) Klingkammer, Joanie (the late Ed) Oliver, and Marie (Greg) Peters. Proud Grandfather of 14 and Great-Grandfather of 19. Brother of Irene (the late Albert) Blancke and brother-in-law of Lawrence (Joyce) Dehondt. Joseph was predeceased by his parents Joseph (Louise) Klingkammer, as well as his siblings, Rosalie (Matt) DeVriendt, Leona DeHondt.

He was also survived by his loving companion, Delores Lerash.

Joseph was a lifelong truck farmer, as well as a truck driver for Theut Products for many years. Joseph was known for his passion of snowmobiling, especially in the U.P. and the family cottage on Island Lake in Rose City. He used his passion for snowmobiling to participate in the Vic Wertz Warriors Special Olympics fundraiser for multiple years. He also had a love for Nascar, there was never a race that he would miss. Joseph's favorite pastime was Euchre, so much so that he never missed an opportunity to pull out his cards and play. He met many friends along the way and even used his love of Euchre to attend many fundraisers. Joseph and Leona spent 20 winters in Arizona, where he loved four wheeling in the desert.
