“ Joe was a neighbor of mine. When we first moved to the neighborhood he was the first to greet us. Moving to a new neighborhood you never know what to expect, but he came off as very warm, kind, and caring. He also deeply loved and cared about his wife, Dee. The love he had for her was truly inspiring to me. The loss of Joe is a big blow to our community, and I want to let his family to know that they're in my thoughts.
