“ Joe, I feel great sorrow now that you have passed on to heaven. You have been a great father in law! I will now have to rely on all of the good memories of things that we shared together. Like the day way back in 1980 when you gave me your sweet daughter to marry. Like sports. Like dogs. Like politics one of my favorite subjects!. Like sharing so many Christmas eve's together. Like our trips to Cedar Point. Like talking about cars. You get the idea. I am hoping that God will assign you to security detail at the pearly gates of Heaven! Thanks for the memories my good friend. And may you forever rest in peace.

“ You came, I was alone, I should have known, you were temptation! You smiled, luring me on, my heart was gone, and you were temptation! It would be thrilling if you were willing, and if it can never be, pity me, for you were born to be kissed, I can't resist, you are temptation, and I am yours! Here is my heart! Take it and say, that we'll never part! I'm just a slave, only a slave, to you! Temptation, I'm your slave! Joe....We will miss you! Paul and Julie Tomasko

“ You will be missed by many. I am so glad we got to share the love, and laughter on the boat. I remember the "U Boat" warning and the "where's my gun". The last time I saw you we danced at the twins graduation; keep on dancing Joe. You will always be in our hearts and our prayers.

“ Joe, Happy Father's Day to a wonderful father-in-law. Thank you for all of the great memories! We will always think of you when we hear "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" and "God Bless America". Our family is grateful for all of the times that we went to Cedar Point with you and Norine. We miss your funny sense of humor. We raise our chocolate malt glasses and propose a toast to a loving, kind and generous gentleman. May you rest in peace. love always, Mary
