“ Joe was an important member of the USS Cogswell DD-651 Association. His duties on the ship allowed him to be an excellent historian of activities during the War in the Pacific. We learned a lot of history from him. Joe was a great person and it is an honor to have known him. Joe and June always brought a smile to our faces. Our very best to June and his family.

“ I knew Joe from his attendance at a number of USS Cogswell DD-651 Association reunions. While we served on the same ship during different wars we shared a common bond that any sailor would understand. We loved him, his wife June and are saddened at his death. Members of our association will remember Joe at our next reunion in San Antonio, Texas in June. His loss leaves a hole in our hearts as he was a vital member of our group. Fair winds and following seas shipmate.

“ I was the organist at Joe and June’s wedding in the early 1990s, and have loved these two beautiful people ever since. They traveled with our choir to Ireland in October 2000 and Joe “concocted” a wonderful Irish cocktail to commemorate the trip. Joe truly was part of the Greatest Generation, and we will always be indebted to him for his military service. The harrowing stories he shared sometimes moved him to tears, and me too. “Well done, good and faithful servant!” Enter now into the place that God has prepared for you.
