“ So very happy that I had the opportunity to spend quality time with Uncle Joe. One time a dinner invitation that I expected to last for about 2 hours turned into about 7 hours of conversation and memory sharing. I will always remember that day. Joe was a great guy.

“ My sincere condolences to the Mijal family. I am so sorry for the loss of your brother and uncle. Joe and I were friends for a very long time as many of us, at the Fisherman's Net. We had fun being competitive in bowling always trying to beat each other. Joe also was the #1 fan of our softball team for many years. We all enjoyed sharing time after our games together. We also had fun sharing birthday cards through the years. Most of them razing each other on getting old. We had many conversations after church just catching up on how our lives were going. I will miss Joe. He was a precious brother and friend. Joe, I know you are in a awesome place with the Lord. I will still remember you on your birthday, but...now, I am the only one who will be getting older. RIP, Carol West.
