“ To the family of Joseph Struck: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. We don't know each other but experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we unfortunately all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ Joe was not just a brother-in-law but more like a brother to me and Betty always thought of Judy as the sister she never had. We have shared a lifetime of wonderful memories that we will always treasure. He will be greatly missed. Rest in peace Joe.

“ As a child, I was always amazed by how well Joe and his sister Betty danced together and there were many family gatherings at the holidays and in the summers. I will always remember the cottages of Lexington and the wonderful fun the family had playing cards, singing around a campfire and eating pounds of potato salad and sausages. It was the best childhood anyone could have had. Rest in peace, "Uncle" Joe.
