Josie's love for dancing was infectious. She could light up any room with her lively spirit and never missed an opportunity to share a dance with friends and family. Her enthusiasm for life extended far beyond the dance floor, as she proved to be a woman of boundless curiosity and adventure. At the age of 81, Josie fearlessly embraced the thrill of zip-lining, a testament to her youthful spirit and willingness to try new and exciting things. A devoted mother and grandmother, Josie's life revolved around her family. Her love for her daughters and grandsons was evident in every aspect of her being. Josie's magnetic personality meant that she never met a stranger. Her ability to connect with others made her a cherished friend to many and left a lasting impact on all who crossed her path. As we bid farewell to Josie Spencer, let us remember the laughter she shared, the dances she led, and the
