“ I've known Josephine for many years, the loving daughter of my good friend Carol Lipson. The times I got a chance to talk with Joaephine, I realized she was a happy and unique person, with many memories. She loved to sing, and often sang as Carol walked her by my house.

Josephine, God bless you ! You are with him now.

“ Cousin Jo was an amazing person. A true independent thinker, loving, musical, talented, outspoken, cheery, and funny. We all miss her greatly. We had so much fun going to the Royal Oak house and being entertained by Jo and Mead, and playing with the Warner children when we were (a bit older) kids. Through the years it has been wonderful to keep close with the family. Our thoughts are with the extended Warner family. Arlene Kwasniak and Allen Carlson and family.

“ Such a privilege to have known Jo; a strong, sweet lady who loved to sing and listen to music. The love that Jo modeled for her family shows every day by the loving care provided by Carol for many years. Prayers and thoughts are with you all.
