“ Joyce was always so full of love every time I saw her. Whether it was as a child or an adult she would light up when she saw us. I loved her very much and was glad to see her and have her meet my wife the last time her and Bill visited. I hope you're dancing in the sky watching over us now. Love Ronnie

“Being best friends with Joyce's daughter Joyce since about 1982, Joyce was my other mother. I've always called her Mom. I have many memories... She very lovingly called me 'Roundhead', not sure why... 🤔 We all took a trip to Florida together, We have shared many meals, We've gotten pedicures... I'll miss her but I'll see her again... Thanks to Jesus! I love you mom! See you later! 🥰

“ I first saw my sister Joyce when I was 8 years old. She was this tiny beautiful baby in my mother’s arms. Our mother told me to be a big bother to her and watch over her, always. I don’t know when it happened, maybe that day, but I had developed a lasting bond with her. I’ve always loved my sister and I felt her love for me, always special siblings and friends to each other.

My sister had a great sense of humor and I always looked forward to every visit, especially when Bill would concoct his always delicious famous (with me) homemade soup. Teasing Bill and his soup was always great fun for both of us.

I’ll always have the deepest loving memories in my mind and heart for both of my sisters, Joyce and Patricia.

Joyce was one of my favorite people—funny, warm and friendly. She and Bill visited her brother Ron and I a few years back to celebrate Ron's 80th birthday. We laughed and laughed. I love her and will miss her dearly.

“ Your Mom was the reason I met Uncle Lloyd. If it wasn't for her and my sister Mary-Kay I wouldn't have had 47 and half years with him. I still remember after uncle Lloyd's memorial service, your Mom, Bill and aunt Pat came to the fifth wheel to get a pair of shoes. Her feet were hurting. Her and Jo were the only Racicot family members that made it to see him before he died. She will be missed.
