“ To Joyce's family, My deepest condolences for the loss of Joyce. I was Joyce's nail tech/friend, for over 17 years. I enjoyed her every week. We had such great times together! So many times, we laughed about something silly she did...until we cried! I have so many memories of her, I'm not sure where to begin. I learned so much about life, from her wisdom and knowledge. She shared so many happy stories with me... about her family and friends and many pictures of her great-grand daughter. She had such energy, she could run circles around most people. I will always remember how she put her heart and soul into projects she worked on. For example, her stunning dolls or the huge Thanksgiving dinners she made for all her family and friends. Joyce would invite me every year, knowing I had a place to go, but wanting to extend the invitation in case I didn't. Every Christmas, Joyce would invite me over to see her animated charter display. I'm so sorry now, I never made the time to go over. I would have loved to have seen it! Joyce would always amaze me as she volunteered so many hours of her time to help others so selflessly. I always enjoyed hearing about what she was doing and where she would be that week. Whether it be volunteering at the jail, giving an open talk, or just going shopping to Cache her favorite store... How she loved Cache !! I loved hearing about her shopping excursions! I was fortunate enough in my lifetime to have known such an incredible lady. She has touched my life in so many ways. I will truly miss her, and I will never forget her. Sincerely, Nicole Broyles

“ Rudy, Michael, & Family, Please accept my personal condolences, as well as those of the entire Peace Lutheran Mon Night AA Group Joyce's 'Home Group' for your loss. It goes w/o saying that the Joyce that I'm fortunate enough to say that I got to know for the past 14 yrs was a person that exhibited a lot of love & commitment to her family, friends, her work, and last but not least, her sobriety and those she helped as a result of it, which were many indeed. Joyce will certainly be missed by those of us who came to know & her love herbut the memories & laughs shared amongst us all will continue to live on Thanks for everything Joycee !! Peace & Blessings, Mike Reilly
