“ Grandma was so caring, her love for her family is her legacy to me. She showed me that time and distance doesn't diminish the true bond between loved ones. I will live with her in my heart for the rest of my life and surely pass her love to my children.

“ I had only met Grandma Potter twice in the time Steve and I have been married. But he's shared many fond memories over the years. My best memory of her is when we visited and I wanted a picture of her with Dee and Steve and Lauren and our boys. She tried so hard to hold JJ where we couldnt see her... she just had a way about her that could make a person laugh. I am sorry that she didnt get to see more of us... but now we know she is our angel. May she rest in peace.

“ Dear Brad & Linda, My condolences to you and your family. The love of a family is life's greatest blessing and it is such a blessing that you were all there at the end. The National Cemetery is a Beautiful final resting place and a very moving ceremony. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you get through this week.

“ Dear grieving family, My wife and I are very sorry for your tremendous loss and would like to express our condolences to the family. We cannot imagine the great pain and sorrow you are experiencing during this most difficult time. When we lose someone we love we are left with a strong desire to see that person again. It's wonderful to know God has promised that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again. John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29 gives us this wonderful reassurance: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." What a marvelous hope! Once again we wish to express our condolences for your loss. And although we cannot erase the pain and sorrow you are feeling, it is our hope that this can give you a small measure of comfort.

“ I am honored to say that Joyce Potter is my grandmother. I have always admired her strength, her dedication to her family and her sense of humor. I have often found myself thinking of her calm, collected nature in times when I have needed guidance. I will miss her smile, her humor, her malted milkshakes and most of all just sitting quietly beside her. I miss you already grandma.

“ Grandma Potter will be very sorely missed by all members of her family and I'm sure, by many friends. Some of my favorite memories of Grandma are playing Rummy, trying our luck at the casino, and of course playing Bingo. Many fond childhood memories as well with me, my cousin Andy, and Grandma. Wonderful Christmas times and fun Halloweens. So many fun times that I will cherish for the rest of my life. Kevin and I will always remember and miss you very much, Grandma. We love you.
