“ Dear Rossbach family: I was very sorry to hear of Mrs. Rossbach's passing. She and Mr. Rossbach were always so kind to me over the many years I have lived at Wexford condos. She was such a nice lady and definitely will be missed by everyone; family and friends.

“ I haven't seen aunt Joyce for many years. She often sent me birthday cards and we sent each other Christmas cards. I was hoping I would be able to get down to go to her service, but was unable to. I haven't seen many of my realitives for many years. I always regret not being able to know everyone as well as I would have liked to. I remember a very nice and kind aunt who had a "brood" of children she loved dearly. I know you will all miss her. You had many years to be with her and I am sure wonderful memories.

“ I will miss my mother and dad greatly! My mother always care about herself last, putting her children and friends first. She was always there for u no matter what, you could count on her for help and support. even when I was in big trouble in another state, she came for me. I'm happy for you now, you are at rest, after your long and great journey of 90 years of life, thru careing and giving!!!! I love you mom, I will miss you!!! Your son Billy P.S. I will miss your cookies

“ She never missed sending me a birthday card for almost 40 years...I have always been told I walk like her when I wear high heels but have no idea what that implies : She was a very thoughtful person and will be missed by many. Love, Jeanne Parent

“ Aunt Joyce will be greatly missed. She never missed a birthday or Christmas with a very nice card. When they lived in South Branch we would play cards and go out to dinner. God Bless. Cliff
