“ My condolences to the entire Snoor family. Joyce was a great friend and neighbor, always with a warm smile, always with the time to sit and chat for awhile. I enjoyed doing anything I could for her whether it was fixing something in the house or something outside. She would fix me a plate for dinner whenever I was working on something for her or Bob. She had a huge heart and loved her family, she will be missed greatly.

“ To the children and extended family of Bob & Joyce: "RP" was my mentor; and both Bob & Joyce were two of my dearest and faithful friend's for almost 40 years! Like you, I grieve for their passing...but can't help but smile while I picture them together still through all of eternity! They were having nothing to do with that "till death do us part" stuff! I can almost hear Joyce saying that! Love to you all..and blessings for having had Bob & Joyce touch my life as they did!

“ Sure will miss the encouragement and hard work that Joyce put into all our socials at Clubside. She was a go getter and wanted everyone to have a good time. She also made sure there was always plenty of food. She was loved by all her neighbors. She always thought of others before herself. No one could have a more loving and caring neighbor. I'll never forget the time I took her for vein surgery and she made me promise I wouldn't tell anyone as we were driving there. She said if my kids find out I'll know who told them. : She said I don't want my kids to worry. Joyce and Bob were wonderful role models as to what marriage is all about and what caring neighbors really are. Joyce will be dearly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. “ I'll second what my parents said. I always remember racing over when they'd pull in the drive to find out what kind of cookies they brought us from McDonald's. The late nights by the fire roasting hot dogs and s'mores. The pontoon rides and boat rides. Endless fun...you are all in our thoughts and prayers!

Your parents helped us when we were remodeling our lake house. Not unusual for us to work all day and around dinner time, Joyce brings us a fantastic dinner! They we're such great people and will be missed.*
