“Juanita and Gordon were wonderful neighbors to us in our years on W Harrison. We shared many laughs with Juanita about her being from Vermontville Michigan where my mom was born and raised. For many years we hosted a family reunion for my mothers side of my family and my cousins loved to go see Juanita whenever they came to Royal Oak. She always had a smile for you and she was a genuine caring woman that we ll always remember with fond thoughts. Our prayers go out to Gordon and the entire Bibby clan. She was one of a kind.

“ I grew up across the street from Juanita and Gordon and know them as "The Bibbys". They let us come over to swim in the pool and I learned a lot about community from those experiences. Though a generation older, Juanita was my mother's friend, and that has always meant a lot to me. Wherever I go, I will remember the community we had on West Harrison. Best wishes from Chicago,

“ Juanita will always be in my heart. She was a great friend and I considered her family. Grayling Memories! Think Easter bunny cake & Lady of the Lake! Mrs. Santa Clause! Always a great sense of humor, never prudish, an all around cool chick! She would want us to remember all the fun times! I LOVE YOU and will miss you, Lee Ferrell
